

Center for Latin American, Caribbean, and Latino Studies

YAI Network Fellowship 2019

The Center for Latin American, Caribbean, and Latino Studies is currently accepting applications for the Spring 2019 YAI Fellowship. YAI supports people of all ages with intellectual and developmental disabilities in achieving the fullest life possible by creating new opportunities for living, loving, working, and learning. The CLACLS and YAI have collaborated for over ten years to host a full day conference in Spanish for Spanish-speaking families across New York City.

In collaboration with the CLACLS, the YAI will award a grant to support a $1,000 fellowship for one Ph.D. student at the Graduate Center, CUNY.

The competition is open to students at the Graduate Center who conduct research related to Latinos with intellectual or developmental disabilities or related to Latinos and health (broadly defined). Applicants must be enrolled in a doctoral program at the CUNY Graduate Center.

The grant will be awarded at the YAI Conferencia Latina to be held at the Graduate Center on Tuesday, May 7, 2019. Ideally, the recipient of the award will be present on the day of the conference for the award ceremony.

TO APPLY:

All applications must be submitted as ONE SINGLE DOCUMENT (PDF) to clacsl@gc.cuny.edu with the subject heading “[LAST NAME] 2019 YAI Fellowship Application.” Application materials must be organized as follows:

1. A single cover page stating the applicant’s full name, email address, home address, GC program, and field of study.
2. A one-page description of the research project, including research question, methodology, and research objective (12pt font, Times New Roman, 1” Margins, Single Spaced). If the current project is part of a group, you must demonstrate that your doctoral research will be on Latino communities as defined in the above criteria.
3. Curriculum Vitae (no more than two pages)

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: Friday, April 12, 2019, 5PM

Decisions will go out April 19, 2019. For more information, contact CLACLS at 212.817.8438
